

mit Eltern für Eltern parents for parents

Democratic Education in a New Europe - Challenges for Parents and Families

Day 1 - 02-03-2009

08:30 h	Conference registration
09:30 – 10.00 h	Opening of the conference	The ANE Principles of Democratic Education: From a new education in Germany after 1945 to a new democratic education in the European 21st century Heidemarie Arnhold – Association for a New Education (ANE)
10:00 – 10:45 h	Keynote speech	Universal Human Rights as a base for Democratic Education Claudia Lohrenscheit – German Institute for Human Rights
10.45 – 11.00 h	Coffee break

Block I Education for democracy in Europe – in the family and in society

	Part A
11:00 – 12:30 h	Panel	Democratic Education – a task for parents and families? - Is this part of the debate in different European countries? What approaches are being debated and practised? Anne Alitolppa-Niitamo (tbc) – Family Federation of Finland (Väestöliitto) Elena Bakosova – Union of Mothercenters (Slovakia) Plamen Georgiev – New Bulgarian University (Bulgaria) William Lay – Confederation of Family Organisations in the EU (COFACE, Belgium) Dudu Sönmezciçek – ANE (Germany)
12:30 – 13:30 h	Lunch break

Democratic Education in a New Europe – Challenges for Parents and Families - Conference 02-03 March 2009 Berlin

mit Eltern für Eltern parents for parents

Part B
13:30 – 15:30 h	Workshop sessions	What are the main points for a new democratic education in Europe? WS 1: Positive Parenting – European approaches Input statements: the Council of Europe approach and practice examples from the UK, Poland and Germany WS 2: Children need values – Which "democratic values" do children need? Input statement on children's values WS 3: Bottom up – Raising children for democracy, the example of Mothercenters Input statements: Elena Bakosova – Slovakia / Cornelia Hönigschmid – Germany WS 4: EDC/HRE – Why are parents a target group? How to involve them? Input statement: Council of Europe (N.N.) WS 5: Democratic education with(in) immigrant communities Input statements: Anne Alitolppa-Niitamo – Väestöliitt, Abdelmajid Hassani – Morocco, Ümit Yüzen-Grabski (German Red Cross)
15:30 – 16:00 h	Coffee break
16.00 – 17.00 h	Presentation of workshop results

Block II

Education for democracy in Europe – involving migrant communities

17:15 – 18:30 h	Panel discussion	Religious education – exemplified by Islam – and education for democracy: What is the common ground for religious and democratic values best suitable for a democratic education? What are the commonplace situations in which conflicts pertaining to the tense area of "Religious vs. Democratic Education" are expressed most prominently? Or is this merely a question of perspective?
-----------------	------------------	--

Democratic Education in a New Europe – Challenges for Parents and Families - Conference 02-03 March 2009 Berlin

mit Eltern für Eltern
parents for parents

Day 2 – 03-03-2009

Block III Education and parenting eye to eye: New roles for children and parents in Europe

08:30 h	Welcome coffee
09:00 –09:45 h	Keynote speech	How important are documented rights, standards and values for a democratic education? Lore Maria Peschel-Gutzeit – Former Berlin and Hamburg Senator for Justice
09:45 –12:00 h	Discussion one	What competencies, rights and resources do parents need for a democratic upbringing of their children? A discussion on how to strengthen the competencies of parents: What influence do parents have on the public education of their children? What is the role and effect of parent support organisations on education for democracy?
	Discussion two	At eye-level: The new role of children and parents in democratic societies. A discussion on the Children's Rights movement and its contribution to democratic education. How can children's rights legislation support a democratic education? What children need to become active citizen in a new democratic Europe?
12:00 -13:00 h	Lunch break

Democratic Education in a New Europe – Challenges for Parents and Families - Conference 02-03 March 2009 Berlin

mit Eltern für Eltern parents for parents

Block IV Conclusion

13:00 – 15:30 h	Closing résumé	What framework must Europe create to provide for a basic democratic education in all European countries?
	Closing speech	Heidmarie Arnhold – Chair Woman of ANE
	Open bazaar	What works?! Projects and programmes on parent support and democratic education from across Europe present themselves.
	Running parallel 14:00 – 14:45 h	Introducing the European Internet Portal “Respect Works Out!” – Strengthening Parents’ Positive Parenting Skills: Exchanging Expertise and building cooperation through virtual and real Networks in Europe.

Block V Start of the ‘New Democratic Education’ network

15:30 – 17:00 h	Workshop	Network meeting on Education for Democratic Citizenship
-----------------	----------	---

This conference is partly funded by the European Commission's Daphne II Programme within the framework of the project "Respect Works Out!"

Democratic Education in a New Europe – Challenges for Parents and Families - Conference 02-03 March 2009 Berlin